Dear Parents,

After school cookery lessons at Farnborough primary school - NEW autumn term!

I am pleased to announce that from Tuesday 11th Sept 2018, The Cooking Shed will be running a new series of after school cookery classes for all juniors (aged 8yrs+). If you'd like to enrol your child on to the class, read on for further info...

Regan Anderton, owner and tutor at The Cooking Shed, will be running a 'learn to cook the world' programme of cookery classes - a series of six, one hour lessons where a different country is chosen each week, and dish that's representative of its national cuisine is made. Children will get to have a taster of the food made by the tutor in the class, and take home what they've made and learnt to enjoy.

Classes will take place within the school, from 3.30-4.30pm (children are welcome to wait in the classroom whilst the tutor sets up from end of school time) on the following dates...

Tues 11th Sept - Italian

Spinach 7 ricotta rivoletti

Tues 18 Sept - British

Sweet sultana scones

Tues 25 Sept - Mexican/Italian

Taco pizza

Tues 2 Oct - Greek

Dolmades & veggie skewers

Tues 9 Oct - Japanese

Sushi rolls

Tues 16 Oct

Spider bread

To enroll your child on to the new 'learn to cook the world' series of classes, please email regan@thecookingshed.com with the subject line: 'Farnborough primary - series 4'. Please include your child's full name, age, year group, and allergies or intolerances, and your name and contact number. The total cost for the six classes is £60, and payment should be made either via bank transfer, or cheque made payable to The Cooking Shed Limited before the classes begin - Regan will contact those of you who are allocated a space to arrange payment with further info.

Please note that we only have 13 spaces on this series of classes, and spaces will be allocated on a first contact basis. For more information about The Cooking Shed, visit www.thecookingshed.com or call Regan on 07525 763198.

Yours sincerely
Regan Anderton
