

Grammar Exercises

Exercise 4.1 B

Practice based on Question 1 (Sample English tests: Grammar, punctuation and spelling Paper 1 – Levels 3-5)

Purpose of exercise: Using connectives in sentences

Circle the most suitable connective to complete the sentence below.

1. The princess loved her blue dress _____ it matched her eyes.
whenever                  unless                  because                  until
2. It is fun to play with baby dragons _____ they set fire to the curtains.
until                  furthermore                  yet                  whoever
3. The pirate captain loved knitting _____ it was difficult with his hook.
therefore                  although                  if                  after
4. _____ much he loved pizza, the vampire couldn't order garlic bread.
nevertheless                  besides                  as                  however
5. The fairies would dance _____ someone played the magic flute.
whenever                  for                  with                  besides
6. _____ a tiring day chasing the villagers, the ogre loved a nice bubble bath.
if                  between                  however                  after
7. _____ his wooden leg, the pirate won the tap dancing competition.
although                  for                  despite                  yet
8. The King loved his daughter, _____ he hoped she would stop kissing frogs.
with                  yet                  after                  between 9. The witch peered at her recipe book _____ the cauldron bubbled.
consequently                  if                  whatever                  while

10. The spaceship went around the moon, _____ engaged hyperdrive.
then                  unless                  whereas                  alternatively

11. The werewolf is much less scary, _____ he put ribbons in his hair.
with                  since                  whoever                  despite

12. The chocolate cows would graze _____ the lollipop trees grew close together, creating a deep shade.
until                  because                  where                  whoever