

Good morning Elves !

Here's your work for today...

Reading online

Please log on to Bug Club and read for at least 15 minutes.

Read the key words inside the front cover first.
Click on the bug questions.

Elves, make sure you note down the book and/ or pages you have read in your reading record book so I can read all about your amazing reading when you return to school.

Maths

Today we are going to recap on our knowledge of ordering.

Green group Maths

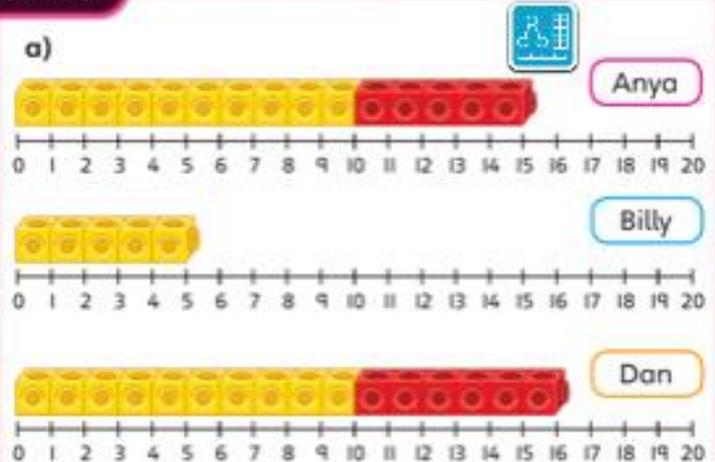

Ordering objects and numbers

Discover

- Order the number of sweets from least to most.
- Who has the most sweets?

Share

5 is less than 15.

15 is less than 16.

$$5 < 15 < 16$$

b) 16 is greater than 5.

16 is greater than 15.

Dan has the most sweets.

I don't think you have to count them all to put them in order. Can you see who has the least straight away?

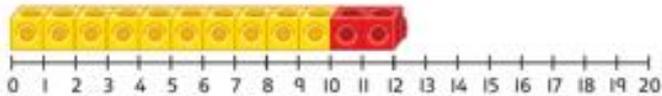

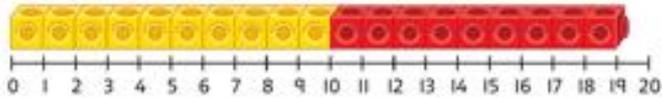

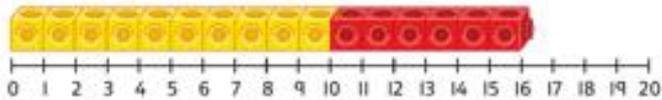

Green group Maths

Think together

- 1 Put the numbers 16, 19 and 12 in order.

Phonics

- Parents, before starting, read How to use this book in the Phonics booklet.

Take a look at page 3, 4 and 5 in your Phonics booklet and Complete the pages.

On page 3, how about using the tricky words and put them into sentences?

Phonics

■ How about working through Pages 4 and 5 in your Phonics booklet 1.

■ Can you make a musical instrument?

Active Learning

Can make your heart beat faster?

Put your hand on your heart at the beginning of this activity (ask an adult where to find your heart if you're not sure).

Can you feel the beats? At the end put your hand on your heart. How does it feel now? What has changed?

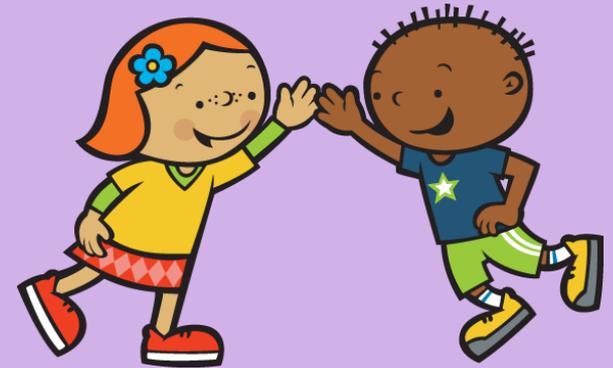

Activity

Have a go at doing your own 5 a day work out as we do in class.

Can you teach a family member the routine?

Can you do the robot or workout dance?

Can you write about your routine and draw pictures of your routine in your blue book?

Have fun, Elves!
I will speak to you
tomorrow.
