

Punctuation Exercises

Exercise 2.8 B

Practice based on Question 37 (Sample English tests: Grammar, punctuation and spelling Paper 1 – Levels 3-5)

Purpose of exercise: Insert capital letters and full stops

Insert the capital letters and full stops in the passage below.

1. it was the first day of the holidays and the sky was a clear blue robbie knew that he must treat every day like it was a saturday
2. dragons like to live in caves during the cold months in the warmth of august however, they spend as much time as possible outside 3. there was only one vampire in london who didn't like blood every weekend marcus would queue with the humans at the late night grocery store
4. without warning, a velociraptor jumped out of the bushes the other dinosaurs scrambled for cover, hurrying to get to safety 5. king ralph had conquered nearly all of the country and only the village of snowdinium continued to resist the villagers had built a wall of rocks and were managing to keep the king's soldiers at bay 6. on tuesday nights, mum would cook a delicious lasagne she didn't tell anyone that the secret ingredient was ground-up worms from the back garden she thought they added a special flavour 7. the first thing that james learned about life on the spaceship was to get to the games room early on tuesday nights everyone loved to play alien bingo and the tables had limited spaces 8. the dwarf had been locked in the castle since july when december came, he dreamed about christmas at home with his squirrels 9. tom could not believe his luck he had known that the pink mobile phone was magic, but he was astounded that he had managed to travel back in time

10. the llamas were harder to feed than the unicorns the unicorns would eat most food, but the llamas only ate strawberry cheesecake and easter eggs

11. unless he was mistaken, the giant hammer at the foot of his bed belonged to the mighty thor he was nervous and excited as he grabbed his dressing gown and slippers

12. Alison thought back to the events of the week it had been wednesday night when they had frantically jumped into the lifeboat and saturday morning when they had come ashore on the deserted island