Describing turns

Discover

- 1 a) Sam is facing the .
She makes a half turn.
What is Sam facing now?

- b) Sam faces the .
She makes a quarter turn left.
What is she facing now?

Is there another way Sam could turn and still end up facing the same animal?

Let's look at the answers and how you could have worked them out on the next page...

Share

Sam is facing the  now.

This is anticlockwise.

If Sam turned right, this would be clockwise.

Sam is facing the  now.

- Why do you think we use the terms 'clockwise' and anticlockwise'?
- If the horse is at 12 on a clock face, what numbers would the other animals be at?

Now I would like you to have a go at completing work in your CGP Maths Reasoning workbook.

If you would like to try Horrid Henry work, complete pages 45 and 46

English

Spike Milligan was a very famous poet.

Today we are going to look at one of his famous nonsense poems.

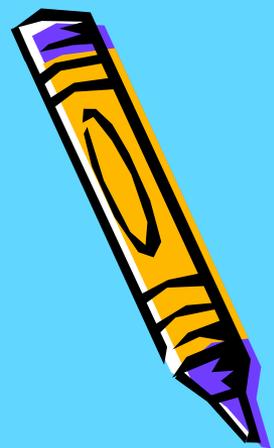

On the Ning Nang Nong

by

Spike Milligan

On the Ning Nang Nong
Where the Cows go Bong!
and the monkeys all say BOO!
There's a Nong Nang Ning
Where the trees go Ping!
And the tea pots jibber jabber joo.
On the Nong Ning Nang
All the mice go Clang
And you just can't catch 'em when they do!
So its Ning Nang Nong
Cows go Bong!
Nong Nang Ning
Trees go ping
Nong Ning Nang
The mice go Clang
What a noisy place to belong is the Ning Nang Ning Nang Nong!!

You are going to write another poem about a noisy, fantasy land over today and tomorrow's lessons.

Think about why does 'On the Ning Nang Nong' seem silly?

What has been used to make the poem exciting?

There are lots of rhyming words and use of alliteration in the poem.

(Remember, alliteration is when words that start with the same sound-not just the same letter and are used repeatedly in a phrase or sentence.)

Your first job is to think of an alliterative place name for your poem

Here are my ideas:

On the Tring, Trang, Trong
On the Ping Pang Pong
On the Ring Rang Wrong

Now decide on who/what lives in your land.
Choose some animals/items

Here are my ideas:

Hamsters
Eggcups
Goldfish
Squirrels
