Inspirational Speeches

We are going to look at 2 famous speeches - one real and one from a film. How are they trying to be persuasive?

Inspirational Speeches - how to persuade

Churchill's speech was made in 1940, just after he had come to power and Britain were losing WW2. He wanted to tell people that things would be hard. He also wanted to tell people that he believed in them and what they could do.

The other speech is from the film Independence Day. Aliens have attacked Earth and the humans are planning a last-ditch assault on the Mothership! Chances are slim but a similar technique is used: yes it is difficult but I believe in what we can do.

Inspirational Speeches - 2 day task

I would like you to have a go at writing a speech. You have 2 choices: Shackleton or a person of your choice.

Shackleton - I will share some ideas with you

Your choice - you could pick anyone! Choose your favourite book character, footballer, maybe a speech for Boris!

On the next slide, I will go through a way to plan.

Person I am writing a speech for: Ernest Shackleton about to leave Elephant Island

Problems

Been stranded for a long time

Lack of food

Freezing temperatures

Who will look after us?

Will Shackleton come back?

Will Shackleton die before he gets help?

Qualities that people have

Survived so far

Care about each other

Determined

Resourceful

Tough

Never give up

Believe in Shackleton and each other

Have a go at planning for your character or adding to my list for Shackleton. We will write tomorrow.

Go for a walk/run.

You must go with an adult from your home and make sure you stay 2 metres away from other people.

MUSIC

We will continue with the project. Warm your voice up.

Starting at the bottom of page 5, try the 'Writing lyrics' activity. See if you can finish the project.

If you need more time, continue with this project tomorrow in the afternoon instead of science.
