

Good morning Unicorns!

Here's your work for today:
Thursday 11th June

Farnborough Dance Routine

Mrs Humphries has created our very own Farnborough Dance Routine!

It has five parts and every day this week we are going to start the day by being active and joining in.

English

- The Gruffalo's Child needs your help to become as fantastic at writing as all of you in Unicorns Class!
- Today we are going to finish writing our own version of 'The Gruffalo'.

- First, watch Julia Donaldson talking about how she wrote the book.

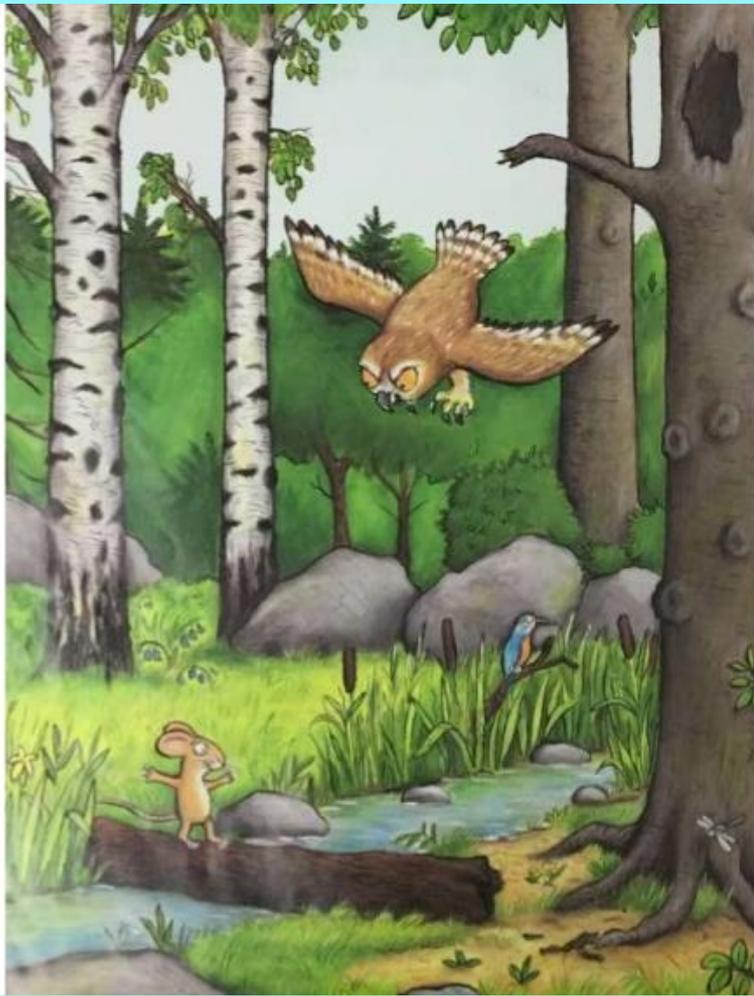

- Click on this link:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=845w3sfbYv4>

- Now look back at your story map from last week to remind yourself of what is going to happen in your story...

- Today you are going to write about the mouse meeting your second character.

On went the mouse
through the deep dark wood.
An owl saw the mouse
and the mouse looked good.
*“Where are you going to,
little brown mouse?
Come and have tea
in my treetop house.”*

*“It’s frightfully nice of you, Owl, but no –
I’m going to have tea with a gruffalo.”*
“A gruffalo? What’s a gruffalo?”
“A gruffalo! Why, didn’t you know?”

- So, you will use the first sentence and then write about the first character that the mouse meets and the type of house that your animal is inviting the mouse to.

“He has knobby knees, and turned-out toes,

And a poisonous wart at the end of his nose.”

“Where are you meeting him?”

“Here, by this stream,
And his favourite food
is owl ice cream.”

“Owl ice cream? Toowhit toowhoo!
Goodbye, little mouse,” and away Owl flew.

“Silly old Owl! Doesn’t he know,
There’s no such thing as a gruffalo?”

- You will add a description of the Gruffalo and end with the Gruffalo's favourite food (Your character!)
- Finally you will write about your character racing away!

Carnival of the Animals

An Art festival

For the next few weeks we are going to run a series of art lessons based around animals.

So whether you are working at home or in school you can create some great pictures. We would like to fill the Farnborough Art Gallery with your work to create a "Carnival of the Animals."

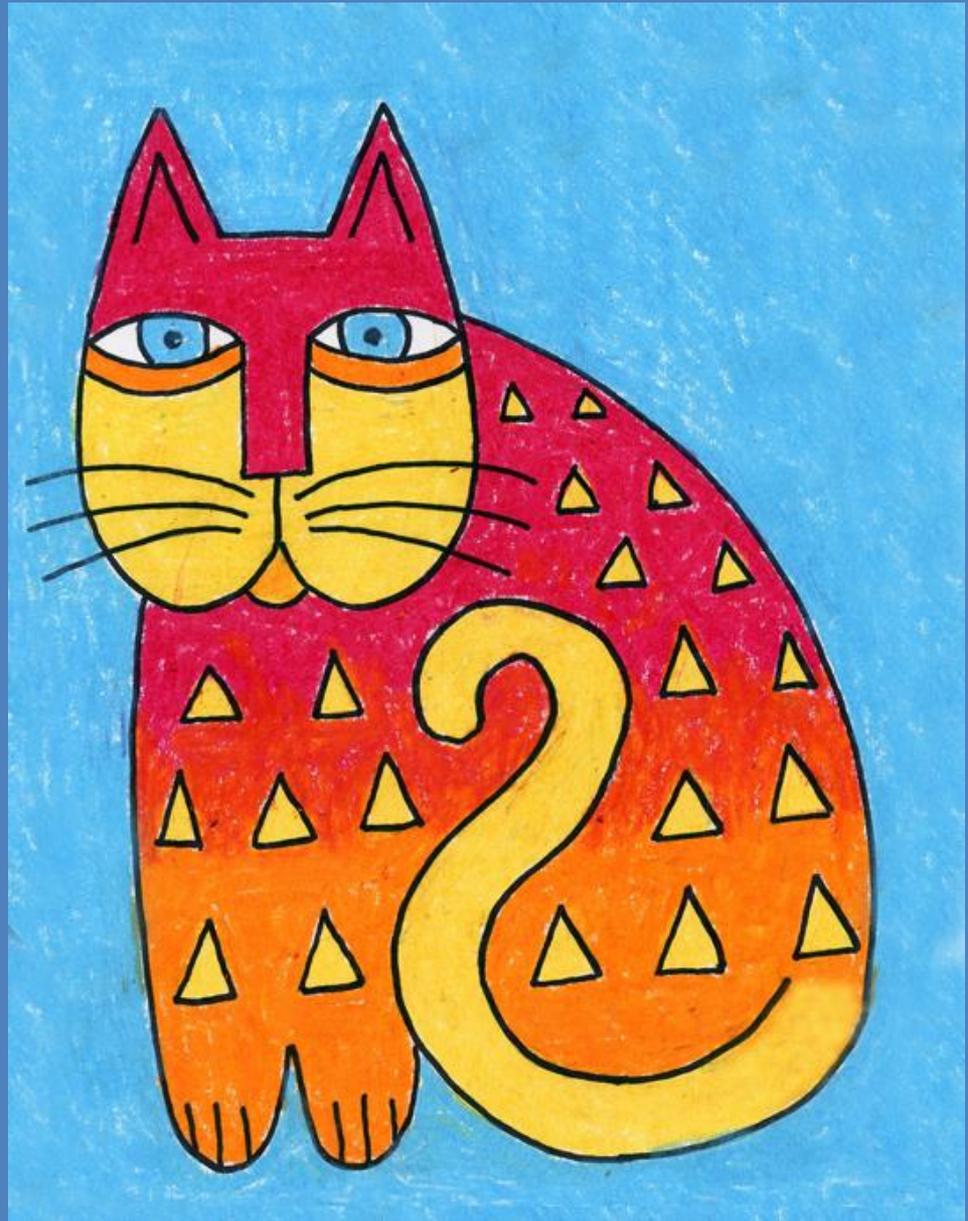

If you are home learning, you can scan your work and send it in to your teacher.

Good luck, have fun and we want you to be creative, so if you have your own ideas we would love to see your artwork!

Laurel Burch Cat Drawing

Try this step by step lesson to draw a cat in the style of the artist Laurel Burch.

Draw a Laurel Burch Style Cat

Supplies: Marker, oil pastels

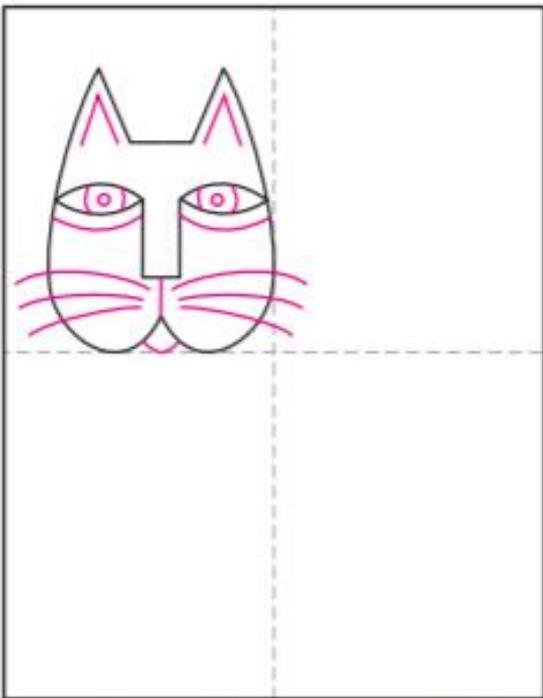

1. Make guide lines. Start the head.

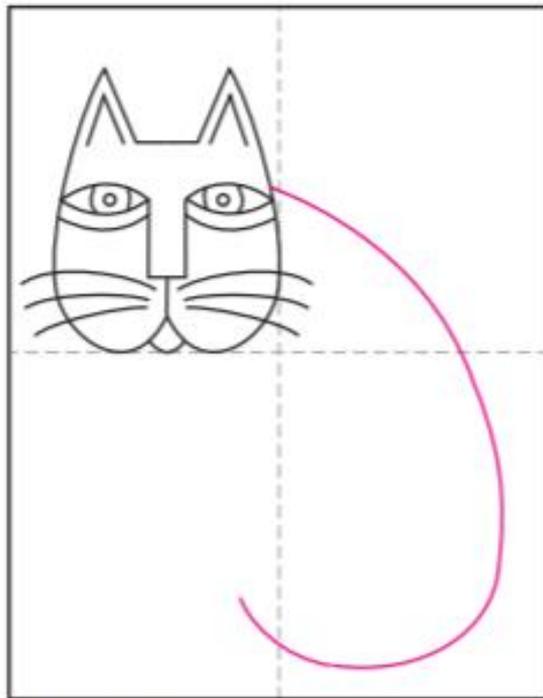

2. Add ears, eyes and nose.

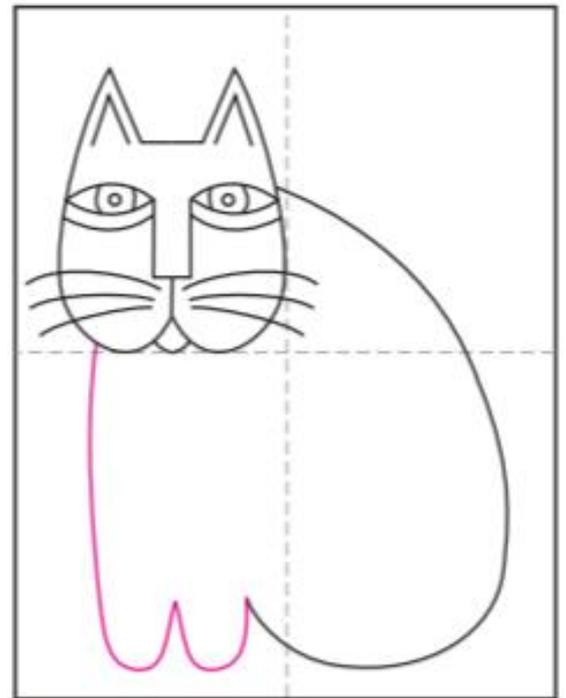

You can use
whatever you wish to colour in your cat.
Have fun and enjoy!

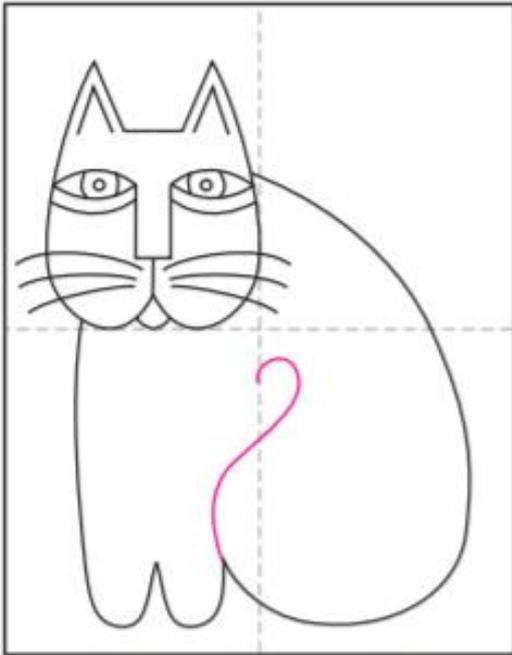

3. Add eyes, whiskers and details.

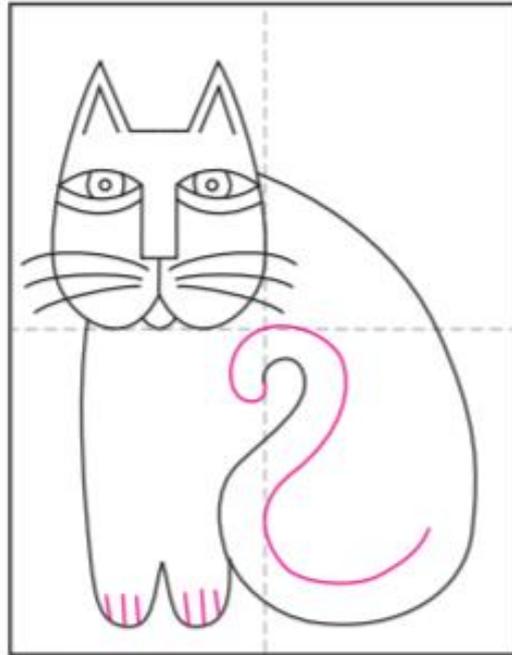

4. Start the back.

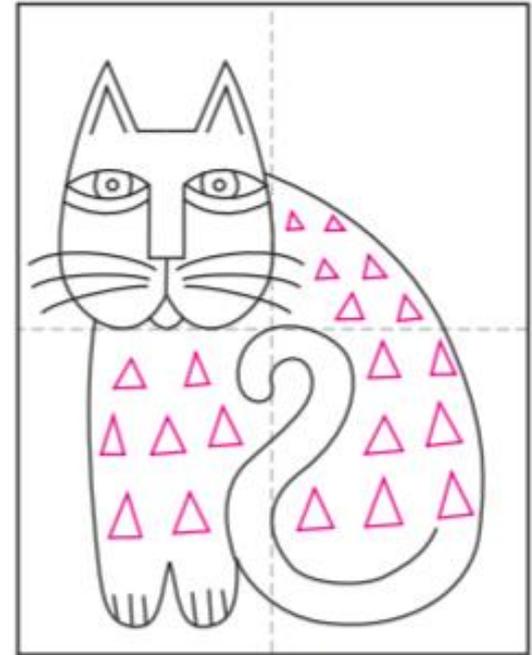

5. Add the front legs.

6. Start the inside of the tail.

7. Finish tail, add front claws.

8. Finish with your favorite pattern.

Remember to create your own pattern and use whatever you have to colour your cat. It's your cat!

Does your cat have a name?

Outdoor Activity

Every day I am going to give you an activity that can be carried out either outdoors, (if the sun is shining) or indoors (if we're not as lucky as the weather!).

Outdoor Home Learning

Who's Been Framed?

Gather some loose materials indoors or out and create a portrait of someone you know. Can anyone guess who it is?

PSHE

Talking to the people in our household is always a good thing to do and helps us to understand some of the new things that are happening in our lives at the moment.

- While We Can't Hug - YouTube

For all the children who can't hug the ones they love.

Now think about these questions:

Why can't we hug the hedgehog and tortoise hug?

Can you think of ways hedgehog and tortoise can play without hugging?

Reading online

Please log on to Bug Club and read for at least 15 minutes

Make sure you answer your bug questions!

Enjoy, Unicorns!
