Maths

The Gruffalo isn't as amazing at Maths
as all of you in Unicorns Class!
He needs your help to carry out another investigation...

Mysteries of the Deep Maths Puzzles

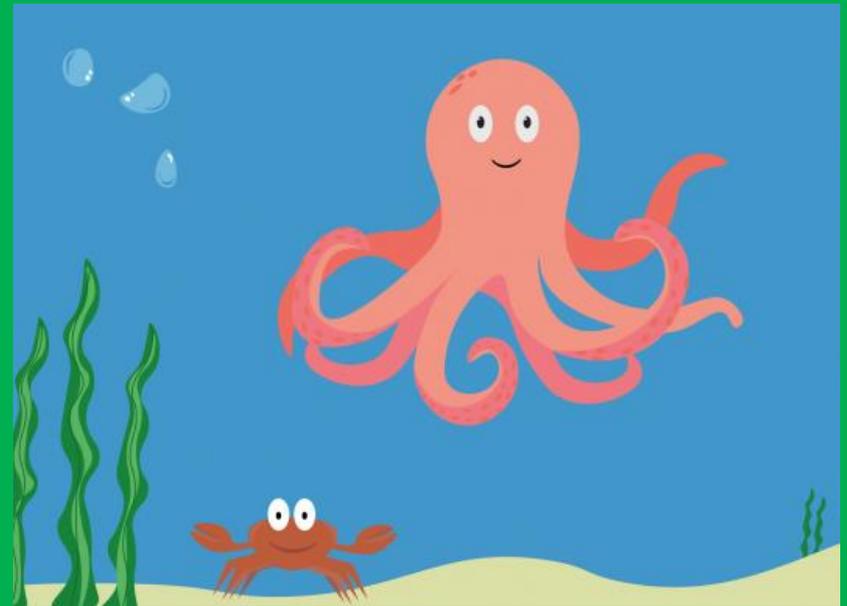

Dive in and put your arithmetic skills to the test!

In the sea there are divers, octopuses and fish.

It's useful to know for this puzzle that octopuses have three hearts (and it's a cool thing to know anyway!).

1. How many eyes would four fish have between them?
2. How many hearts would 3 octopuses have between them?
3. How many legs would two divers and an octopus have between them?
4. How many eyes would three divers and two fish have between them?

You can write your answers in your exercise books.

If you would like to try Gruffalo work, complete questions 1, and 2.

If you would like to try Horrid Henry work, complete questions 1, 2 and 3.

If you would like to try James and the Giant Peach work, complete questions 1, 2, 3 and 4.

We are doing really well in our race around the world- keep being active, Unicorns!

To help us to be even better, today I would like you to create a warm up routine for your family before setting off on your exercise.

Design a poster to show the warm up routine. Have a look at the next slide to give you some ideas

Outdoor Activity

Every day I am going to give you an activity that can be carried out either outdoors, (if the sun is shining) or indoors (if we're not as lucky as the weather!).

Insulation Investigation

Find a space outdoors/indoors where you can create a nest to keep a 'dormouse' warm. Choose materials that you think will be good insulators. Make your 'dormouse' a jar of warm water. Check the temperature over time.
