Year 6 Dragons totally in Elf Day mode, sewing pencil toppers ready for the big day

Gear up for Xmas Jumper Day 2020

CHRISTMAS JUMPER DAY will be on Friday the 11th December and you will also get Christmas lunch. Christmas jumper day is a day where millions of people wear a Christmas jumper and donate money to charity.

Christmas Jumper Day was started by the charity Save the Children in December 2012 and it has become a fun tradition in the UK.

We got an interview with some children from Year 6 that told us some things they like about Christmas jumpers.

We asked Dannii what her favorite Christmas jumper is and she said she liked a white jumper with a gold reindeer on it.

We questioned Helena how much she likes Christmas jumper day and she said, "Quite a lot because I can annoy people as I can come in with nothing Christmassy!"

We also asked Helena what her funniest Christmas jumper story is and she said that once she came in on Christmas Jumper Day wearing a halloween jumper because she got completely confused with the dates!

We were able to ask Charlotte whether she likes the Christmas lunch and she replied with a yes and she specifically said that she likes the roast potatoes and the pudding.

We also asked Charlotte what her funniest Christmas jumper story is and she said,

"Once, I had a polar bear jumper with a red snowflake on it and my mum put it in the wash and the red spread across the jumper and made the polar bear pink!"

Christmas jumpers were first established on the ski slopes of northern Europe. Although skiers in the 20th century loved Christmas jumpers, in the 80s and 90s they became known as gifts that you would get from your grandma. Luckily, now we can wear Christmas jumpers that suit our tastes much better.

Farnborough ready for Christmas fun!

THE reception nativity is in full swing. And great news is that parents are officially allowed to come and watch their children perform for the first time in person!

All of the receptions have been working extremely hard to learn all of the songs and their lines.

There will be two performances where one parent will be allowed for each child for each nativity. One of these performances will be on Wednesday 9th December and the other will be on Thursday 10th, both at 9:45am.

All of the parents must wear a face covering during the show and sanitise when coming in and out of the school.

The seats will all be socially distanced so that we are still within government guidelines.

For any parents who can not come, it will still be on zoom for them to enjoy as well.

The Christmas market will be throughout this coming week, with a different class hosting on each day.

All of the children will be making their very own DIY creations for you to buy in the afternoon of the school day and once again parents will be allowed to attend.

You will be able to have mince pies and hot chocolate whilst listening to Christmas music.

Elf day will be on Monday the 14th. On elf day the kids can come in dressed as Santa's little helpers or anything else Christmassy. On the day, each class will make some arts and crafts to do with Christmas in their own bubbles. Above, you can see a picture of the year 6s on Elf day who are creating some lovely pencil toppers using their sewing skills.

COMING up in the next issue of the Farnborough News...

We see how the classes are getting on with preparing their Christmas flash mob dances, which parents will be able to watch on Zoom.

We watch in awe as Santa comes to the school!

We get cosy and gather our popcorn for a festive film night - so make sure your PG permission slips have been returned!

And we take a look at year 6's Christmas ideas...
