

From wheels to rockets - how has transport changed? Year One Knowledge Organiser

Big Question	Subject Specific Vocabulary		Cross Curricular Links
From wheels to rockets - how has transport changed?	history	History is about past events	 DT - Design, make and assess a moving vehicle.
	past	Past is a time that has happened already; yesterday, a day ago, a month ago, a year ago, a decade ago.
	present	Present is a time that is happening now; today.
	future	Future is a time that has not happened yet but will happen later; the next day, next year.
	decade	A decade is a length which is ten years long; it begins and ends with a year ending in 0 (2010 to 2010 is a decade).
	timeline	Timeline means an order of time to show events, devices (objects) or people's lives along a timeline.
	chronology chronological	Chronology shows how events, people and things are ordered over time from oldest to newest.
	transport	Transport means moving people or goods from one place to another.
	travel	Travel means moving from one place to another.
	invention	Invention means a creation of a device (type of object) for the very first time. It has not existed before.
Prior Knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Individual travel experiences.</li> <li>• Non-fiction books and stories.</li> </ul>	Viking longboat	Longboats were used by Vikings to travel to other countries.
	horse and cart	They were used to travel goods and people to different places.
	hot air balloon	A balloon filled with hot air and a basket underneath for people to travel.
	steam/petrol engine	An engine which uses steam or petrol to make a vehicle move.
	penny farthing	A bicycle with one big wheel at the front and one small wheel at the back.
	electric car	A car uses electricity to make it move.
	V2	The first space rocket launched to space.

