Dear Parents

Crofton Roman Villa Trip & Workshop – Wednesday 19 April

As part of our work on the Romans, Pegasus class are visiting Crofton Roman Villa to take part in a morning workshop from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. on Wednesday 19 April. The workshop will consist of a talk on the villa and its excavation by an archaeologist with an opportunity to try some mosaic making, take brass rubbings of Roman soldier figures and handle some Roman artefacts.

We shall walk to Crofton Roman Villa departing after morning registration with the aim of getting there for 9.45 a.m. and shall walk back to school after the workshop finishes at noon to have lunch in school. Please send your child in with a substantial snack to eat mid-morning and a water bottle. Also please ensure your child has suitable shoes for the walk and brings in a waterproof on that day.

There is a charge of £3.00 towards the cost of this trip, which can be paid via Pay 360, our online payment system. Although the charge for the trip is voluntary, if we do not receive enough contributions from families the visit will have to be cancelled. If you are eligible for and have registered for free school meals this trip will be paid for by the school.

Please complete the permission slip below and return to school as soon as possible with confirmation that you have made payment of the £3.00 contribution via Pay 360.

Yours sincerely
Mrs Browne & Miss Pattison
