Dear Parents,

Black History Month – Stuart Lawrence Visit

At Farnborough Primary this year we will be launching our Black History Month of learning and celebration with a very exciting guest. We have Stuart Lawrence joining us to share his book 'Silence is Not an Option'. The book aims to equip young people with the tools to grow, make choices and decisions, as well as managing mistakes and criticism. Stuart Lawrence believes that with a little help, everyone can handle life's challenges, figure out their passions and find their voice.

Although the book is aimed at Key Stage 2, Stuart Lawrence will tailor his workshop to meet the needs of Key Stage 1. Reception will not attend the workshop, however ideas such as finding their 'superpowers' and appreciating what they feel most grateful for will be developed in a child centred way within the classroom.

We are very fortunate to be able to run three workshops, 1 for Years 1-3 and a second for Years 4-6 as well as a parent workshop. We will be running our parent workshop at 9am Friday 22nd September. If you are interested in attending, please complete the below slip and then depending on the number of people we may need to offer just one place per family, but we will keep you updated.

“WE ALL WANT TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN LIFE
AND TO BE REMEMBERED FOR OUR ACHIEVEMENTS
- BUT HOW CAN WE DO THAT, WHEN THE WORLD
CAN SEEM SO BIG AND SOMETIMES SCARY?”
STUART LAWRENCE

Through our curriculum the children will be researching and learning about inspirational figures to write about in their English lessons as well as Art and DT projects all of which we will be excited to share with you through an informal open afternoon on Friday 13th October from 2:30pm.

Thank you for your support.

Kind Regards,
Mrs Cheeseman
Deputy Head Teacher
