

Hello Earthlings, what is the United Kingdom like?

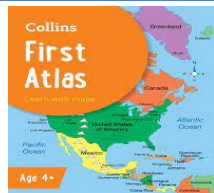

Knowledge Organiser

Big Question

Hello Earthlings, what is the United Kingdom like?

Prior Knowledge

- Farnborough Village
- Broadstairs
- Local Area
- Personal experiences

Subject Specific Vocabulary

Start

End

country

An area of land with its own borders, rules and government.

island

An area of land surrounded by water.

United Kingdom

United Kingdom or the UK. It is made up of four countries: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

capital city

A capital city is a place where people work and live but also where the government rules the country.

city

A city is a place where people work and live. It is smaller than a capital city and larger than a town.

English Channel

The English Channel is the sea that separates the south of England and the North of France.

settlement

A settlement is where people live.

mountain

A mountain is a physical geographical feature. It is a high and vast piece of land.

lake

It is a large area of water that does not move to another area.

farmland

Farmland is an area used for farming.

moorland

Moorland is an area, found in the countryside, mainly upland that is made up of specific vegetation i.e. heather and moss.

urban

Urban means an area of land that is a town or city, It is made up of settlements and buildings for varied uses rural

Rural means an area of land that is mostly countryside and there are a small number of settlements.

